

MEET OUR TEAM

RONALD MICHAEL LOGAN

Ronald Michael Logan was born on November 29th, 1984 to Aldith Ferguson and Douglas Logan in Kingston, Jamaica. The “Sunshine Island” of the Caribbean. He is the youngest of three.

Ronald graduated High School in 2001 and was beloved by almost all of his classmates and teachers.

Prior to his move to the United States, Ronald was working as an Air-conditioning Tech/ Office Clerk.

Ronald immigrated to the United States on April 25th, 2013. Upon his arrival to the US, he was offered a position at River Falls Seafood (now The Market at River Falls) where his uncle Michael “Jr” Turgott works.

Ronald plays many roles in the Market. He works with Junior in our fish department. When Junior is off, Ronald is your trusted seafood advisor. He often orders the fish, fillets it, and he doesn't hesitate to reject any product that doesn't seem just perfect to him.

On the weekends, Ronald leads the customer service team, often working both the opening and closing shifts. In addition, Ronald has earned both the Serve Safe Food Safety Certification and the Moco's ALERT Certification.

Ronald’s hobbies include fishing and dancing. He is an avid Basketball Player and a huge fan of the Washington Wizards!

Ronald is a very outgoing individual and has a very honest, loving and humorous personality. He can sometimes be caught dancing while at work to a Michael Jackson hit.